

Being Present: Spirituality, Disruption and Reflection in Palliative Care

A one-day seminar, Warilla Bowls & Rec Club, Tuesday 19 June 2018

This seminar will bring together Palliative Care staff and volunteers, pastoral care staff and volunteers and other interested health professionals to talk about Spirituality, Disruption and Reflection in Palliative Care. Members of the general public are most welcome.

0930 - The ethos of palliative care, existential suffering, total pain and volunteer support. Bernadette Orange.

1045 – What can end of life care learn from after death care? Amy Sager.

1115 – Disruption, displacement and diaspora: the landscape of grief, loss and bereavement in palliative care and the role of the volunteer. Pippa Blackburn.

In the afternoon Kate Englebrecht will discuss spirituality in the context of caring for people at or near the end of their lives at her Spirituality and Reflective Practice Forum (1pm – 3:30pm). Kate will also explore reflective practice for practitioners and how meaning is made or formed from our experiences of caring.

Being Present: Spirituality, Disruption and Reflection in Palliative Care

When: 0930 – 1530 Tuesday 19 June, 2018.

Where: Warilla Bowls & Rec Club, Jason Ave, Barrack Heights

Cost: Free, all welcome

Catering: Light refreshments provided, buy your own lunch.

RSVP: Come all day or nominate either the morning or afternoon session
Cynzia Dei-Cont Cynzia.DeiCont@health.nsw.gov.au 4223 8414
Elanne Thompson Elanne.Thompson@health.nsw.gov.au 4464 6985

Palliative Care
Volunteering

PalliativeCare
NEW SOUTH WALES